

About your LAA Coach

Ian Mitchell

Ian learnt to fly at Dunkeswell in 1976 going solo in gliders at just 16, he then gained his PPL in 1985 and since then has accumulated over 5500hrs on more than 90 different types of aircraft.

Shortly after gaining his PPL he became part owner of a Taylor Monoplane and joined the LAA , since then he has owned various aircraft including a Quickie Q2, Fournier RF4D, Scheibe Rotax Falke, Christen Eagle II and most recently a Luton Minor.

Ian is very enthusiastic about all aspects of aviation and a keen aerobatic pilot, he became an LAA coach & CRI in 2002 and is also an active TMG, SLMG & Sailplane Instructor/Examiner.
